Unit 3

LET'S BEGIN

The story of 'The Little Girl', in Beehive, is about the changing attitude of a girl child towards her father.

- As you are grown up now, you may want to interact with your parents on many issues. How will you go about it?
- Do you feel a communication gap between you and your parents which leads to unpleasantness?
- What are your feelings at that time?
- How do you cope with that situation?

* * READING COMPREHENSION

Read the following text and answer the questions that follow.

Text I

This is an extract from Harper Lee's To Kill a Mocking Bird. After supper, Atticus sat down with the paper and called, "Scout, ready to read?". I ran crying, went to the front porch. Atticus followed me. "Something wrong, Scout?" I told Atticus I didn't feel very well and didn't think I'd go to school any more if it was alright with him. Atticus sat down in the swing and crossed his legs. His fingers wandered to his watch pocket; he said that was the only way he could think. He waited in amiable silence, and I sought to reinforce my position: "You never went to school and you do alright, so I'll just stay home too. You can teach me like Granddaddy taught you 'n' Uncle Jack." "No I can't", said Atticus. "I have to make a living. Besides, they'd put me in jail if I kept you at home. Now what's the matter? Bit by bit, I told him the day's misfortunes. "And the teacher said you taught me all wrong, so we can't ever read any more, ever. Please don't send me back, please Sir." Atticus stood up and walked to the end of the porch. When he completed his examination of the wisteria vine he strolled back to me. "First of all", he said, "if you can learn a simple trick, Scout, you'll get along a lot better with all kinds of folks. You never really understand a person until you consider things from his point of view-" "Sir?" "-until you climb into his skin and walk around in it". "But if I keep on goin' to school, we can't ever read any more..." "That's really bothering you, isn't it?" "Yes sir."

wisteria vine: a genus of flowering plants

When Atticus looked down at me I saw the expression on his face that always made me expect something. "Do you know what a compromise is?", he asked. "Bending the law?" "No, an agreement reached by mutual concessions. It works this way", he said. "If you'll concede the necessity of going to school, we'll go on reading every night just as we always have. Is it a bargain?"

bargain: an agreement between two or more people as to what each will do for the other

"Yes sir!"

"We'll consider it sealed without the usual formality", Atticus said, when he saw me preparing to spit.

As I opened the front screen door Atticus said, "By the way, Scout, you'd better not say anything at school about our agreement". "Why not?" "I'm afraid our activities would be received with considerable disapprobation by the more learned authorities."

disapprobation: strong moral disapproval

My brother and I were accustomed to our father's diction, and we were at all times free to interrupt Atticus for a translation when it was beyond our understanding. "Huh, Sir?"

"I never went to school", he said, "but I have a feeling that if you tell Miss Caroline we read every night she'll get after me, and I wouldn't want her after me".

1. Why was Scout, the little girl upset? _____

- (a) She didn't like being told what to do.
- (b) She didn't want to read with her father.

- (c) She didn't want to stop reading with her father.
- (d) She didn't want to read with her teacher.

2. How did Atticus, her father, react to her outburst?_____

- (a) He was angry.
- (b) He was patient.
- (c) He was annoyed.
- (d) He was sad.

3. What little advice did Atticus give to his little girl to cope up with situations that might upset her?_____

- (a) to know and understand that life isn't fair.
- (b) to stay calm and then run away from the problem.
- (c) to try and see from the other person's point of view.
- (d) to face her fears by expressing how she felt.

4. How was the matter eventually resolved?_____

- (a) Atticus agreed to allow her to learn from home.
- (b) Atticus agreed to continue reading as before.
- (c) Atticus agreed to speak to her teacher.
- (d) Atticus agreed to allow only the teacher to teach her.

5. "I'm afraid our activities would be received with considerable disapprobation by the more learned authorities." In this context, the word 'disapprobation' might mean_____.

- (a) disapproval
- (b) disturbance
- (c) disgrace
- (d) disorientation

6. Atticus decided to come to a compromise and to read to Scout but asked her not to mention it to her teacher because_____.

- (a) he respected the wishes of the teacher yet didn't want to disappoint his daughter.

Fun fact

Supposed

This is often misused as 'suppose to' which is incorrect because it lacks the letter 'd.'

- (b) he might get into trouble with the teacher who might come after him.
- (c) he only cared for his daughter and thought the teacher was incorrect.
- (d) he was afraid that the teacher may not like it and Scout might get into trouble.
7. The word 'reinforce' means the following—fortify, brace, stiffen, strengthen, underpin.

Find the contextual meaning of 'reinforce' in the passage. _____

Text II

Read the poem and answer the questions given below. You can recite too to appreciate the idea in the poem.

Poem at Thirty-Nine

How I miss my father.
I wish he had not been so tired when I was born.
Writing deposit slips and cheques
I think of him.
He taught me how.
This is the form,
he must have said:
the way it is done.
I learned to see
bits of paper
as a way to escape
the life he knew
and even in high school had a savings account.
He taught me
that telling the truth
did not always mean
a beating;
though many of my truths
must have grieved him

Fun fact

Bemused

This word is not related to 'amuse' in any way. Bemused means bewildered or perplexed.

before the end.
 How I miss my father!
 He cooked like a person
 dancing
 in a yoga meditation and craved the voluptuous sharing of good food.
 Now I look and cook just like him:
 my brain light;
 tossing this and that
 into the pot;
 seasoning none of my life
 the same way twice; happy to feed whoever strays my way.
 He would have grown to admire
 the woman I've become:
 cooking, writing, chopping wood,
 staring into the fire.

My little 10 years daughter Sarah was born with a muscle missing in her foot and wears a brace all the time. she came home jumping up and down one beafutiful spring day to tell me that she had competed in "field day"- that's where they have lots of races and other competitive events because of her leg support my mind raced as I tried to think of encouragement for my sarah i wanted to tell some hard facts of life not letting this to get her down But, before I could get my word out, she said, Daddy, I won two of the races! I couldn't believe that! and then Sarah came out with a declaration, I had an advantage.

Ah, i knew it. i thought she must have been given a head start, some kind of physical advantage. but again, before I could say anything, she said, Daddy, i didn't get a head start... my advantage was that i didn't give in i had to try harder!

That's my Sarah.

LISTENING

Listen to the song twice. Answer the questions that follow.
Then sing the song together.

Que Sera, Sera
When I was just a little girl
I asked my mother
What will I be
Will I be pretty?
Will I be rich?
Here's what she said to me
Que sera, sera
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que sera, sera

What will be, will be
When I grew up and fell in love

I asked my sweetheart
What lies ahead
Will we have rainbows?
Day after day
Here's what my sweetheart said
Que sera, sera
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que sera, sera
What will be, will be
Now I have Children of my own
They ask their mother
What will I be?
Will I be handsome?
Will I be rich?
I tell them tenderly
Que sera, sera
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que sera, sera
What will be, will be
Que Sera, Sera

Fun fact

Hyphen and En dash

A hyphen (-) is the shortest dash most commonly used to combine words.

Example: well-being, mid-October, two-thirds, far-off, deep-fried, in-depth, mother-in-law.

En dash (–) is slightly longer than a hyphen, and is used for page ranges, years and months.

Example: 20–50, 2015–16, July–August 2018

En dash is also used to compare or indicate connection between two words.

Example: Hindi–English, North–South, May–June, liberal–conservative, good–bad.

Tip: If 'to' can be replaced by a dash or vice versa then that would definitely be an En dash.

SPEAKING

1. Conduct an interview with your parents and find out how things have changed over time. Your project must contain a minimum of 10 questions.

Some ideas/topics you could include in the questionnaire are:

- (i) What they thought was a really fun thing to do.
- (ii) The music they listened to.
- (iii) The movies they liked.
- (iv) And the television shows they enjoyed.
- (v) Why they liked these things back then?
- (vi) When my parents were my age, what were they not allowed to do?
- (vii) Why were they not allowed to do those things?
- (viii) What did their parents believe in?
- (ix) What did they disagree with their parents about?
- (x) How much money did they have for themselves as pocket money?
- (xi) What was the maximum amount they were allowed to spend on?
- (xii) In what ways are your parents like their parents? In what ways are they different?
- (xiii) Who were the people your parents admired when they were teenagers?
- (xiv) What were some things they worried about?

2. Write the interview in the form of a newspaper article. You could submit it to your school's newspaper or website, or in audio or video form which can be posted on your school's website.

3. Share key moments and insights from the interview, and then discuss ways to bridge the generation gap and find common ground.
